Working strategically: Teamwork and Innovation

Working Strategically: Building innovative learning spaces and collaborative teams. Visit Living Faith’s Learning Plaza and see the learning plaza teachers in action with their students. Curriculum Leader, Rebecca McConnell will:
• Show examples of teachers’ plans as they work in the space
• Explain how the teaching team works
• Share the process of building parent partnerships.

A general tour of Living Faith Lutheran Primary School will be included.

Working Strategically: Moving multiple site-based initiatives forward

What ISQ projects feature at your school? What [other] initiatives feature at your school in 2015? What are the tools and templates you [and your school] uses to track progress and recognize success? How do you manage teacher work-load associated with multiple initiatives? Where and how does the AC feature?

Be prepared to share your learnings from your various project[s] over recent times - and to share the outcomes your school has achieved for learners. Learn about LEQ’s on-going initiatives and discover how they can contribute to your focus on teaching and learning.

Please Bring: Computer / iPad / electronic device of choice

PART 1: ANY SITE-BASED ‘PROJECTS’ INFORMATION [e.g. Project outlines, PD you will undertake [and be delivering back at school], Readings that have been helpful etc.

PART 2: ANY INFORMATION ABOUT SITE-DEVELOPED INITIATIVES [e.g. a particular pedagogical focus such as inquiry or problem solving or service-learning]

PART 3: AC LEARNING AREA SOCPES AND SEQUENCES and other AC curriculum planning exemplars. Be prepared to share and show how AC Learning Areas, pedagogy and assessment are reflected in site-based documents – and then put into practice in the classrooms.
