

2022 Professional Development in Service-Learning & Community Engagement

Educators interested in enhancing their knowledge and understanding of service-learning are invited to join our learning intensives offered in 2022:

- Addressing contemporary issues confronting our world and education
- Participatory and collaborative online learning that is practical, substantiated by research—and earns postgraduate credit points while you learn.

Semester 1, 2022

Intensive 1: FOUNDATIONAL UNIT

Service-Learning and Community Engagement: The Connection of Head, Heart and Hands (DE8040L)

About: An interactive overview of key aspects of best-practice service-learning & community engagement—and why this vocational thinking is more important than ever today!

Dates: Sat 5 & Sun 6 February
(3.5 hours online each day)

Cost: $1366 (accredited 12 point unit)
or $455 (accredited 4 point unit)

Intensive 2: MICRO-UNIT

A Concept-based Approach: Enriching Service-Learning & Community Engagement

About: An inquiry into particular service-learning concepts (e.g. innate human dignity, stewardship, story, boundary crossing); how concepts may be experienced in practical ways in an educational setting.

Dates: Sat 19 & Sun 20 March
(3.5 hours online each day)

Cost: $455 (accredited 4 point unit)

Semester 2, 2022

Intensive 3: FOUNDATIONAL UNIT

Service-Learning and Community Engagement: Who is My Neighbour? (DE8041L)

About: Investigate different types of community partnerships; develop audit tools to guide selection of local and overseas service-learning & community engagement partners.

Dates: Sat 20 & Sun 21 August
(3.5 hours online each day)

Cost: $1366 (accredited 12 point unit)
or $455 (accredited 4 point unit)

Intensive 4: MICRO-UNIT

Creation Care & Stewardship: Service-Learning & Community Engagement's Building Blocks

About: Stewardship recognises that resources are finite and all of life is interdependent. This requires all to respect and care for our world sustainably. Explore how Stewardship and Creation Care can transform learning in numerous and practical ways.

Dates: Fri 30 September & Sat 1 October
(3.5 hours online each day)

Cost: $455 (accredited 4 point unit)

Dr Meg Noack
DipT BEd GradDipRE GradDipArts (Children's Lit) MEd EdD

Ms Jodie Hoff
BEd GradDipTh(Ed)
MEd(Lead)

For how to enrol or to ask questions, email
ALC Enquiries:
enquiries@alc.edu.au

About Service-Learning & Community Engagement intensives

All of ALC'S Service-Learning & Community Engagement learning will include the following:

- Facilitators Jodie Hoff (Principal of LORDS [Lutheran Ormeau Rivers District School], Pimpama) and Dr Meg Noack (ALC sessional lecturer)
- A guest speaker with expertise in the field and/or a visiting practitioner undertaking pioneering work in the field
- Opportunities for collegial conversations, questions and professional sharing
- Gaining 4 or 12 points credit towards an ALC postgraduate course
- Theological reflections connecting underpinning beliefs and values
- Access to recent and seminal research and readings

For study content information, contact Jodie Hoff principal@lords.qld.edu.au or Meg Noack megnoack32@gmail.com.