GET READY TO TAKE YOUR MATHS LESSONS TO THE NEXT LEVEL

YXL prides itself on its cutting-edge, relevant, and informed approach to engaging with teachers. Our unique, hands-on training program keeps our finger on the pulse and allows us to deliver practical support to classroom teachers. That's why Y=XL² Lifting Maths out of the textbook is the professional learning all maths teachers have been waiting for!

This workshop will showcase active, rigorous and engaging pedagogy specific to a Maths classroom and equip participants with fresh ideas to rejuvenate and bring your Maths classroom to life - or for an 'out of area' Maths teacher to stock their toolkit. Participants will be presented with strategies and classroom-ready resources guaranteed to impact learning the very next day.

We believe, through practice, teachers are inspired and empowered to have long lasting effects with the students they teach.

+ Chris is passionate about the early support of teachers and has a history of building capacity, future leaders and continuous learners.

As an international educator, Chris has worked in both the UK and Australia. He has inspired teachers, while serving as a Pedagogical Coach, Head of Department and Head of Professional Practice. His WHY commits "to empower and supportively challenge others so that they can do the same in their setting"

Chris was the recipient of the AMSI Choose Maths: Teaching Excellence Award in 2019. He was also recognised on the 2019 Educator Hot List and was one of The Educator's Rising Star awards 2018 for leadership. In 2021, Chris was internationally recognised as the overseas Outstanding Educator-In-Consultancy for the Academy of Singapore Teachers.
